TINE RAVN, SENIOR RESEARCHER

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

I am a senior researcher at the Danish Centre for Studies in Research and Research Policy within the Department of Political Science at Aarhus University. My research focuses broadly on national and international sociotechnical transformations at the intersection of science and society. Positioned within the field of science, technology, and innovation (STI) studies, my work emphasizes the ethical, political, social, and epistemic implications of research and technology. In particular, my previous and current research examines the social and ethical dimensions of emerging biotechnologies, research integrity, public engagement with and trust in science, STI policies, science governance, and responsible research and innovation (RRI).

EDUCATION

April 2017	PhD in the Social Science and Business Programme. Aarhus University (AU). Dissertation: "Strategies for life. Lived Realities of Solo Motherhood, Kinship and Assisted Reproduction".
October 2009	MSc in Sociology. Department of Sociology and Social Work. Aalborg University (AAU).
January 2009	Sociological specialization at the University of East London (UEL).
June 2007	BSc in Sociology, Department of Sociology and Social Work, Aalborg University (AAU).

EMPLOYMENT

April 2023 -	Senior Researcher at CFA
May 2022 - April 2023	Postdoc at CFA
June 2017 - May 2022	Assistant professor at CFA (maternity leave Jan-Nov. 2018)
June 2016 - June 2017	Research assistant at CFA
August 2011 - June 2016	PhD fellow at CFA (15 months leave to work on two EU projects, maternity leave, May 2012 - April 2013)
August 2010 - August 2011	Research assistant at CFA
March 2010 - August 2010	Consultant, Knowledge Centre of Integration, Vejle.

RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP

January 2016	Visiting research fellow. Center for Family Research. University of Cambridge.

GRANTS

- 2024 Aarhus University's Platform for Inequality Research (PIREAU) seed funding for the project: 'Public Trust in Healthcare Professionals' Use of AI and the Implications for Social Inequality' together with Antoinette Mary Fage-Butler, Loni Kraus Ledderer, Kristian Hvidtfelt Nielsen, Rune Nystrup and Alan Irwin. 88.177 DKK
- 2021 EUopSTART-project funding for CREATE (Crisis response: a framework for Research Ethics And inTEgrity) together with Serge Horbach and Mads P. Sørensen. Danish Agency for Higher Education and Science. 50.000 DKK.
- 2021 Network funding on "Reconceiving Donor Conception in Denmark and Japan" (partner). The International Network Programme. Ministry of Higher Education and Science. PI Stine W. Adrian. 288.000 DKK
- 2021-2024 HYBRIDA (Embedding a comprehensive ethical dimension to organoid-based research and resulting technologies). Horizon 2020, 'Science with and for Society' programme. H2020-SwafS-28-2020. 3-year grant: € 2.995.785(DKK 22.468.000). AU share: € 560.790.00 (DKK 4.177.885) WP-co-leader/co-applicant with Mads P. Sørensen.

PROJECT/LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE IN NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL PROJECTS

- 2022- PI on the HORIZON Europe project POIESIS (Probing the Impact of Integrity and Integration on Societal Trust in Science. First year of the project co-coordinator with Niels Mejlgaard and Serge Horbach. Consortium with 7 partners. In addition to the project coordination, collaboration includes the planning and execution of the following national sub-studies: public consultation (deliberative workshops), expert interviews, focus groups and a deliberative roundtable. The project will result in a set of policy recommendations on addressing societal mistrust, strengthening public engagement and responsible research practices, and communicating science responsibly.
- 2021-2023 PI/Work package leader in HYBRIDA for WP4: Engagement, co-creation and validation (together with Mads P. Sørensen). Horizon 2020. Consortium with 8 partners. This includes leading a team in the project with partners from 8 different institutions and countries conducting 3 deliberative mini-publics, 2 co-creation expert workshops, 15 expert interviews, and 6 focus group interviews to help inform the production of ethical and regulatory guidelines and a code of responsible conduct responsive to the diverse requirements, concerns, and recommendations of citizens, CSOs, industry, policymakers, and the research community.
- 2019-2022 Work package leader in TeRRItoria (Territorial Responsible Research and Innovation Through the involvement of local R&I Actors) for WP on evaluation. Consortium with 13 partners. This included leading a team in the project with partners from 13 different countries and institutions conducting a formative and a summative evaluation of 5 cross-country territorial RRI experiments.
- 2019-2022 Collaborator in WP in the project SOPs4RI (Standard Operating Procedures for Research Integrity". Funded by Horizon 2020. Collaborator on the design, planning and execution of 30 focus group interviews on research integrity within RPOs and RPOs in 8 different countries. Continued collaboration on a comparative study on ‘Accelerated academy and research integrity’ (SOPS4RI and PRINT data).

- 2017-2019* Collaborator in WP in the project PRINT (Practices, Perceptions, and Patterns of Research Integrity). Funded by the Ministry for Higher Education and Science. Collaborator on the design, planning and execution of a focus group study with a total of 22 focus group interviews on disciplinary differences in regard to questionable research practices across 8 universities in Denmark.
- 2016-2019* Collaborator/ joint WP lead with Niels Mejlgaard in the project ENERI (European Network of Research Ethics and Research Integrity). Funded by Horizon 2020. WP on building an e-community and network for research ethics and research integrity experts and in constructing relevant RE/RI indicators based on stakeholder- and expert consultations.
- 2014-2017* Collaborator on WP in the project PE2020 (Public Engagement Innovations for Horizon 2020). Funded under FP7-SIS. Collaborator in WP on constructing an inventory for public engagement initiatives/methods and case exploration of European PE innovations.
- 2014-2017:* Collaborator in WP developing RRI indicators in the project MoRRI (Monitoring the Evolution and Benefits of Responsible Research and Innovation). Funded by DG Research & Innovation.
- 2010-2012:* Collaborator in an across case analysis on the interaction of science and society in Europe as part of the project MASIS (Monitoring Policies and Activities related to Science in Society in Europe). Funded by DG Research & Innovation.
- 2010-2014:* Collaborator in case study of the Festival of Research at AU and a national report on Scientific Culture in Denmark as part of the project PLACES (Platform of Local Authorities and Communicators engaged in Science). Funded under FP-7.
- 2010-2011:* Collaborator in ex-ante and ex-post evaluation of AU mentoring programme for female researchers as part of the project WHIST (Women’s careers hitting the target: gender management in scientific and technological research). Funded under FP-7.
- 2010-11:* Collaborator in the desk study and qualitative interview study in the “Evaluation of Research Project Grants of the Danish Council for Independent Research”. Evaluation, Danish Agency for Science, Technology and Innovation.
- 2010-11:* Collaborator in the design (including focus group study) and accreditation of a “Master program in Higher Education and Research Studies” (Masteruddannelse i videregående uddannelse and forskning).

PRESENTATIONS (2024- 2025)

Presentation on 'HYBRIDA's Stakeholder Engagement Activities' with Mads P. Sørensen. Final HYBRIDA event, Brussels (May)

Presentation on 'Public Perceptions of Trust in Science: Findings from a European Deliberative Study. Joint CSS/CFA seminar, AU (March)

SUPERVISION

2025-	PhD supervision (second supervisor). Rikke Evald Povlsen. Project concerning how policy measures work at the frontline in relation to frontline workers' causal theories
2024-	PhD supervision (second supervisor). Signe Carlsen. Project concerning the significance of temporariness on civic citizenship. Political Science PhD Programme.
2023-	PhD supervision (second supervisor). Oksana Dorofeeva. Project concerning big data ethics. Social Sciences and Business PhD Programme, AU.

2019-2023 PhD supervision (second supervisor). Peter Busch Nicolaisen. "A troublesome triangle or a thriving trinity? A study on climate science communication in Denmark". Social Sciences and Business Programme, AU.

2019 - Supervision of master students from the Department of Political Science, 10 completed theses.

SUPERVISION AREAS

Sociology in general (particularly issues related to identity, gender, reproduction and family/kinship formation)

Social, legislative and ethical aspects of medically assisted reproduction (MAR)

Responsible research and research integrity, public engagement with science and technology and trust in research

Qualitative methods (interview techniques more generally, focus groups, narrative and biographical methods)

TEACHING

2023-

Co-teacher of the Bachelor course "Health Sociology" (10 ECST). Department of Public Health, AU

2019-2023:

Co-teacher (coordinator in 2021, 2023) of the Master course "Advanced Qualitative Methods: Data collection and qualitative content analysis" (10 ECTS). Political Science, AU.

2019:

Coordinator and co-teacher (with Mads P. Sørensen, Carsten Bagge Laustsen, Andreas Kjær Stage & Alexander Kladakis) of the Bachelor course "Sociological Theory" (10 ECTS). ARTs, AU.

2012-2017:

Co-teacher of the Bachelor course "Sociological Theory" (10 ECTS). ARTs, AU.

REVIEW EXPERIENCE

Reviews for the following journals: Science and Engineering Ethics, BMC Research Notes, Public Understanding of Science, PLOS ONE, Journal of Gender Studies, Dansk Sociologi, Tidsskrift for Professionsstudier

2021:

Review of research proposal for a junior research group. Call on "Research Quality in and across Disciplines" within the framework of the Berlin University Alliance.

PERSONAL DATA

Date of birth: September 18, 1983

Civil Status: Partner (Stefan Larsen) and two children (Selma age 12 and Theo age 7)
