Relevant work experience

Aarhus University

Student counsellor // VEST (Vejledning og studieinformation) // 2020-

Primary tasks have involved counselling students about university life, exams, and proper ways of studying. Furthermore, I have taught numerous bachelor- and master students regarding rules, deadlines, and study life, which have given me classroom and teaching experience. This job has given me much experience with AU as organisation and the department in general.

Voluntary musician // 2020-

I have provided music for the department's annual semester start meetings and for 'morning song' every Wednesday. I have also provided music for other departmental activities.

Music work in churches

Pianist // Erritsø Kirke // 2016-

I have provided music for both Sunday mass and gatherings in local parish.

Voluntary Church musician // Vineyard // 2019-

Primary tasks have been to provide music for Sunday services and similar gatherings. This has included leading the worship band both as singer and instrumentalist as well as arranging songs and interludes.

Pianist // Betlehemskirken (Aarhus Methodist Church) // 2022-

I have provided music for Sunday mass. This has included choosing hymns and songs with the pastor as well as composing pre- and postludes.

Pianist // Voices of praise // 2022

As a substitute pianist I accompanied the Voices of Praise Gospel Choir.

Pianist // Immanuelskirken (Aarhus Baptist Congregation) // 2022-

I have provided music for Sunday mass. This has included choosing hymns and songs with the pastor as well as composing pre- and postludes. I work as primary church musician.

Conference

Forum Young Theology // Vienna // 2022

On the conference I attended various workshops and contributed to the conference’s output, which included an ecumenical hymn. Furthermore, the conference’s focus point “protestantism between nationalism and cosmopolitanism” provided a basis for my interest in ecumenical work. The conference’s costs was paid by Mellemkirkeligt Råd.
